1 CENT SALE!

Friday, Saturday--October 26-27-28th

A New Way of Advertising

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co., as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full-sized package of high-standard merchandise for 1c. It costs money to get new customers, and the loss taken on this sale will be well spent if the goods please you.

GET RID OF THE SQUEAKS

Annoying Noises That Are Frequent Even in the Best-Built Houses Can Be Stopped.

There are very few houses which do not have floors that are always squeaking as persons walk over them. Such squeaking is very annoying, and many different suggestions have been made to remedy the nuisance, but, curiously enough, only a few of the suggestions have proven of any real value.

Many persons think the squeaking is caused by the flooring boards not being properly nailed, but in most cases this is not the case at all.

The tongues and grooves of the narrow boards do not always fit together exactly tight, and a little pressure on either side of the crack and between joints, where the boards are nailed, will cause the boards to spring slightly, causing the disagreeable squeaking sounds.

The best remedy for a squeaky floor is to apply a little liquid glue to the cracks. This can be done by dipping a thin strip of metal in the glue and inserting carefully in the crack at the point from which the sound comes.

A knife blade can be used to apply the glue. Simply dip the point in the glue and insert in the crack. Move the blade about slightly to remove the glue and make it stick to the flooring, where it will dry in a short time and stop the squeaking.

WOMAN WAS A DIME AHEAD

But She Felt the Least Bit Uncomfortable When She Thought of the Fat Man.

The woman slipped a dime into the glove on her left hand. She would be at the subway in a moment, and the dime so placed would facilitate matters. As she passed the foot of the bridge extension by the city hall the ring of a coin as it struck the pavement reached her ears. She saw a dime rolling at her feet.

A fat man, subway bound, also heard and saw it. Both stooped to pick it up. She was first. His hand only fanned the dust from the sidewalk. "I beg your pardon," he said as he straightened up, rather red in the face.

"Not at all," she said. "I thank you for your courtesy." Then she hurried downstairs. Seated in the train, her gloved hand involuntarily went up to her hair. A dime dropped into her lap. Then she understood.—Youth's Companion.

First Guide to Beauty.

By singing, and by singing only, a little child of five may come in contact with a pure and perfect form of beauty, Thomas Whitney Surette writes in the Atlantic. Not only that, but the child can reproduce this beauty entirely unaided, and in the process of doing so its whole being—body, mind, heart and soul—is engaged. The song, for the moment, is the child. There is no possible realization of the little personality compared to this. Here, in sounds, is that correlation of impulses in which the stars move; here is the world of order and beauty in miniature; here is a microcosm of life; here is a talisman against the cold, unmeaning facts which are driven into children's brains to jostle one another in unfriendly companionship. Through this they can feel a beauty and order and sequence which their minds are incapable of grasping. The joy which a child gets in reproducing beautiful melodies is like no other experience in life.

Edison's Philosophy.

I believe there is intelligence in all matter. Why, if you put rocks under a microscope you will see their elements working like bacteria. A rock has a lot of intelligence. It shows living movements. A piece of raw silver shows it. Nothing dies. Intelligence continues to exist. Our little life is rounded with a sleep. Shakespeare was right and we get a foretaste of it every night we have sound, unconscious rest. That's all death is. Why fear? We don't know we're dead. But that doesn't mean I don't believe in a Supreme intelligence, for I do. Nemesis catches up with us on earth. And you garner here and not (only) in heaven or elsewhere your harvest of happiness or misery. You can't "beat it" and be happy. You can't be crooked and feel the joy of being straight.—T. A. Edison.

Velocity of Wind.

In meteorological terms a strong wind is anything from 24 to 37 miles an hour; a gale from 38 to 55 miles, and a storm from 56 to 75 miles. Beyond that it may be described as a hurricane. In the convulsion which destroyed the Tay bridge in December, 1879, the anemometer registered gusts of wind which exceeded 100 miles an hour. The connection between the velocity and the pressure of the wind is not yet known with absolute certainty, but roughly speaking (wind of 40 miles) produces a pressure of eight pounds to the square foot and 51 miles a pressure of 13 pounds. The British Association Committee on Wind Pressure has recorded cases of eight to ninety pounds to the square foot.—London Chronicle.

Stage Accessories.

Of course we understand that actors drink cold tea for highballs, but there has never been any satisfactory substitute for the cigarette.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

HORSE SHOE NEWS.

Local and Personal Items Concerning People in That Hustling Community.

(Special to The Hustler.)

Horse Shoe, N. C., October 24.—Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan, who returned to Horse Shoe after an extended wedding trip to Southern points and are making their home at present with the bride's mother, Mrs. Carrie Johnson.

W. E. Brown returned to his old home and moved all of his personal belongings to Jefferson City, Tenn. Jeff King of Graphiteville, N. C., visited his parents last week.

We are glad to see Miss Loring Davenport out at school again after being confined to her room with tonsillitis.

James Duncan has commenced the erection of Mrs. Carrie Johnson's new bungalow.

C. B. Moffitt, Tom Redden and Charles Barnett have just finished making molasses. The grade of syrup is very fine and the above men understand their business.

Bobo Hollingsworth has returned home from Tryon.

The young people of this section were invited to an old fashioned molasses candy pulling at J. E. Leverette's. They all report an enjoyable time.

Miss Dosia Case went to Hendersonville last week.

There is much interest shown in the services at the Baptist church conducted by Rev. E. T. Ross of Greer, S. C. A number of persons have united with the church including Morris Dalton, Simp Bishop, Bobo Hollingsworth, Grady Snyder, Roy Redden and others. We trust all may be benefited by the services.

Frail Kuykendall of Tuxedo, is spending a few days with friends and we are glad to have him in our midst. Frank Johnson visited his mother Sunday.

Tom Duncan of Asheville, is at home on a visit.

Rev. Tom P. Jimison has gone to Dot Va., to hold a revival service.

Rev. E. G. Ross will preach to the women and girls at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church. All are invited to attend.

Miss Louise Bird is on the sick list. Robert H. Lockaby of Pisgah Forest, N. C., visited friends here a few days ago.

Miss Edna Warlick of Asheville, is visiting her cousin, Miss Mary Joe Johnson.

Misses Jessie and Una Corn of Eto. wah are visiting their sister, Mrs. Vernon Moffitt.

The Misses Garren of Hendersonville, spent the week end with Mrs. C. B. Moffitt.

Misses Dora and Della Moffitt, also Julian and Clark Moffitt dined with their father Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Johnson of Asheville, and Sam Johnson and wife of Hendersonville, visited their mother last week.

The officers and teachers of the Methodist church organized a Bible Institute to look after the derelict church members to persuade them to attend Sunday school.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Holbert on Monday, October 23, a daughter.

The teachers Aid Society of the two Sunday schools meet every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the classroom at the Baptist church. If you are interested in the Sunday school lessons, come out and learn more about them.

The attendance of the Horse Shoe graded school is excellent. All on roll have been present for the past month with the exception of two pupils. This speaks well for Principal Joe Capps.

Mrs. Alice Duncan visited her niece, Mrs. Willis, near Rugby a few days ago.

We hear rumors of numerous Halloween parties to be had in our section. There is a scarcity of pumpkins and it is hard to even get a few for Halloween decorations.

The farmers are busy gathering corn and before many more weeks the old time corn shucking will begin with its merriment and bountiful suppers on which the Horse Shoe matrons pride themselves.

Gus Pressley, the genius, has rigged up a saw mill apparatus and has sawed up the sixty cord wood pile of A. L. & L. E. Davenport. Pressley has a long head on him, he having in the past made an automobile and mounted it on buggy wheels. South Carolina now owns this freak car.

Jessie O. Johnson and S. C. Case attended the last W. O. W. meeting at Hendersonville.
